71 Crawford Street
Newark, N. J.

Dear Mrs. Manley:

The enclosed list takes care of everybody that I send League standings and results to each week, and Mr. Elias should send his averages to the same people.

This sheet includes all the owners; the Negro papers in league cities, and others that have good circulation in our league cities; Frank Forbes, Lester Bromber, who does the New York publicity, Bill Leuschner and all the Phila. newspapers, both white and colored.

As to our official scorer, Mr. Bolden will take care of everything that should go to the scorer.

I hope that this takes care of you from my end. All you will really have to add is the white newspapers and official scorers in other league cities.

Incidentally, I talked to Bill Leuschner about those uniforms you wanted to sell, and he will take them, so contact him immediately.

Very sincerely,

Ed. Gottlieb
